

“We Love Our New Church Home and Thank Sperry For Their Help.”

From the first time we met I was very impressed with how respectful everyone was at Sperry. I was even more impressed that they continued to give us that same level of attention throughout the project. We were very happy with how our project turned out and I would have no hesitation in recommending Sperry & Associates to any church looking to build.

Reverend John White
New Mt Zion AME Church