

“We are very excited about how this store came together — the people at Sperry & Associates were great to work with.”

We kept throwing changes at them, but with the excellent communication systems they had in place, everything could be accomplished. We look forward to working with Sperry on developing new stores in the future.

Tony Jordan
Vice President of Store Development
The Fresh Market